INVESTIGATION:

The investigation revealed that the three involved officers, P.O. Mateo, P.O. Wesselhoff, and P.O. Pasko, are assigned to the Gang Enforcement Division of the Chicago Police Department. The officers were on duty and assigned a three man car in civilian dress. The officers were conducting a narcotics investigation in the area of 2349 W. Lake Street. The officers learned from [REDACTED] that a person known [REDACTED] as "Cash" was going to deliver Heroin to [REDACTED] after a [REDACTED] "Cash". Officers Mateo, Wesselhoff, and Pasko formulated a plan [REDACTED] to allow the narcotics deal to proceed as previously arranged. P.O. Pasko entered the [REDACTED] vehicle while officers Mateo and Wesselhoff remained in their enforcement vehicle. [REDACTED] in the presence of Officers Mateo and Wesselhoff. The Offender [REDACTED] was waiting to make the deal in front of the Currency Exchange at Lake and Western and [REDACTED] was driving a black Chevy Impala. P.O. Mateo radioed P.O. Pasko the location where the offender [REDACTED] would be. P.O. Pasko went to 2349 W. Lake Street and observed a Black Chevy Impala bearing [REDACTED] P.O. Pasko radioed P.O. Mateo and requested that he come to the location of 2349 W. Lake Street. P.O. Pasko positioned the [REDACTED] vehicle behind the black Chevy Impala and P.O. Mateo pulled his unmarked Police vehicle up to the front of the black Chevy Impala. P.O. Pasko approached driver's door of the black Chevy Impala, announced his office and demanded the offender show his hands. P.O. Mateo and P.O. Wesselhoff also attempted to approach the vehicle while both announcing their office. The driver of the black Chevy Impala, Denzell FORD IR#2078314, accelerated the black Chevy Impala backwards and crashed into the [REDACTED] vehicle. FORD then accelerated forward in his black Chevy Impala and rammed into the front end of the unmarked police vehicle, causing P.O. Wesselhoff to be thrown to the ground from the impact of the collision. P.O. Mateo was also injured by the impact but he remained on his feet. P.O. Mateo and P.O. Pasko, in fear for the life of P.O. Wesselhoff, who was on the ground in the black Chevy Impala's only path of flight, opened fire on the black Chevy Impala. Denzell FORD was struck multiple times and was taken into custody.

Responding officers arrived on the scene and began to render aid to Denzell FORD. P.O. Wise, who is a certified EMT, applied a tourniquet to FORD'S leg and attempted to keep FORD awake and alert. P.O. Wise asked FORD what happened to him and FORD responded, "I fucked up. I was just trying to make some money. I made a mistake." Ambulance 53 arrived and began to render aid to FORD. FORD was placed into the Ambulance to be transported to the hospital. During the course of the conversation in the ambulance, FORD stated "I was selling drugs, I got caught, and I tried to run from the police. FORD then related that he was selling heroin and the heroin was in the glove box of his car."

P.O. WESSELHOFF was transported to Northwestern Hospital via CFD Ambulance #33 for a back injury which included bruising, spasms and soft tissue damage. He was treated by Dr. [REDACTED] and admitted into the ICU, listed in Stable condition.

P.O. MATEO suffered abrasions to his right tricep area, a sore left arm and back. He refused treatment at this time.

The offender FORD received multiple GSW's to his abdomen, chest, arms and legs. FORD was transported to Stroger via CFD ambulance #53. He was treated by Dr [REDACTED] and listed in Critical Condition. FORD is currently in surgery.

ASA S. COTTER of Felony review responded to the Area. Two counts of Aggravated Battery to a Police Officer are PENDING.
